

DAC BURSARIES FOR HERITAGE RELATED STUDIES: 2022

The Department of Sport, Arts and Culture invites applications for bursaries from institutions accredited and registered with the Department of Higher Education and Training for students who wish to pursue studies in heritage related programmes.

Eligibility

- South African citizenship;
- Letter of admission from the institution;
- Not older than forty (40) years old;
- Outstanding / satisfactory academic performance (academic progress report if already at an institution) or (Grade 12 (if you are a 1st year student));
- Field of study (heritage related)
- Not employed full time by government, state agencies or private sector with a salary of more than R130 000.

Fields of study

- Anthropology (including forensic anthropology)
- Archaeology (marine and underwater cultural heritage, forensic, etc.)
- Archives and Records management
- Conservation of the built environment
- Conservation and preventive conservation
- Collections (cultural & natural) management (Not Nature Conservation)
- Heritage resources management
- Palaeontology
- Museum Studies or Management and Curatorship
- IKS or Courses that contribute to the preservation and promotion of Indigenous Knowledge Systems (IKS) and S.A. Living Heritage

VALUE OF THE BURSARY

- Study fees: The total amount of study fees will be covered.
- Books: The total amount of prescribed books will be covered.
- Accommodation: R 50 000 maximum amount (NB where applicable)
- Meals: R 18 500 maximum amount (NB where applicable)
- NB: Funds are payable directly to the higher institution of learning

Interested institutions are requested to collate applications from their various departments and submit on behalf of the students by no later than 28 February 2022 to Ms Reinette Stander, Deputy Director: International Conventions and Legislation, Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, e-mail: Reinnettes@dsac.gov.za; or to Mr Maano Muhadi, Deputy Director: Heritage Policy, Research and Development, Department of Sport, Arts and Culture, e-mail: Maanom@dsac.gov.za. There should be one focal point in each institution for the collation and submission of applications. Students are requested to complete the attached application form. Applications submitted physically or via email by an individual student and not by an institution where the student is admitted to study will not be considered. Late applications will not be accepted.

NB: Institutions should please note that their programmes would be verified for South African Qualifications Authority compliance requirements.

Enquiries regarding the bursary applications should be directed to Ms Reinette Stander at telephone: (012) 441-3711 or by email to reinnettes@dsac.gov.za; or to Mr Maano Muhadi at telephone: (012) 441-3622 or by e-mail to maanom@dsac.gov.za